Tell us a little about yourself in the box below (involvement with animals, the community, etc):

The Waco Animal Coalition is a collaboration of local non-profit (501c3) animal organizations and established animal welfare agencies located within McLennan County. We recognize human-animal interactions take many forms and in order to most greatly help our community's pets, we must also help the people who care for them. The Waco Animal Coalition meets monthly to discuss ongoing support, resources, and needs for the community and the Waco Regional Shelter. We are a solutions-based entity.
